

JOSEPHINE AND REBA

Siblings Josephine, 13, and Reba, 12, want nothing more than a loving mother, father, and more sisters and brothers. Especially close, they just want a family that will embrace them both and make them their own. Both girls enjoy school and care deeply about others.

Josephine enjoys art, sewing, and caring for animals; Reba likes math, crafts, and gymnastics. They both enjoy swimming and people. Josephine wants to teach children with disabilities when she grows up, and Reba wants to be a teacher as well.

Through no fault of their own, each girl is behind in school, but they're both working hard to catch up. Josephine and Reba have so much to offer the world; they just need someone to give them a chance. Deeply caring, confident, and connected, they relate well with peers and adults. They also advocate well for themselves.

Please pray that Josephine and Reba find the forever family they need to help them grow and reach their fullest potential. They could do so much good in the world with a family that supports them and loves them unconditionally.

Almighty God, you gave your only Son into the care of a human family:

Please open the hearts of your people to all children in foster care, especially Josephine and Reba; send parents to love them, communities to guide them, and your Holy Spirit to nurture them into the people you want them to be. This we ask through your Son, Jesus Christ.

Amen.

Fostering in Faith

Each of us has a story. It's our own, yet it is richly interwoven with relationships and connections. Those connections can turn our personal stories into a larger, shared story. We create our story by giving voice to our shared human experience - by praying in solidarity for our brothers and sisters, by connecting our empathy to action, and by sharing our resources, our gifts, and ourselves with each other.

Pray ...

This loving ministry provides a way for congregations, faith communities, and individuals to pray for children in need of adoptive families. We know that most congregations have within their fellowship persons to whom God has given a spirit for intercessory prayer. You may be one of those special people.

Connect ...

By reaching out to local congregations and church leaders, Saint Francis hopes to build relationships. By connecting, we can collaborate in creative ministries, address local needs, and share insights and experience. Together, let's begin "our" story.
