JAXON

Thirteen-year-old Jaxon is ready to be happy. Unfortunately, his life so far has been short on the happiness and love he deserves. He communicates in ways that are mature for his age and wants to build connections through meaningful relationships.

Jaxon enjoys sports and outdoor activities. Last semester, his class studied coding and computer applications, and he really enjoyed it. He doesn't know yet what he wants to do when he grows up, but he likes to be active.

For a while, Jaxon wasn't sure if he wanted an adoptive family, but now he says he's ready. He wants siblings, as well as a mom and dad. He would prefer to remain near his friends in Wichita, but he also understands that it may not be possible.

Jaxon is a sweet, open-hearted boy who deserves a loving home. He just needs a chance with a family that will love him, cherish him, and make him their own.

Almighty God, you gave your only Son into the care of a human family:
Please open the hearts of your people to all children in foster care, especially Jaxon; send parents to love them, communities to guide them, and your Holy Spirit to nurture them into the people you want them to be. This we ask through your Son, Jesus Christ.

Amen.

Fostering in Faith

Each of us has a story. It's our own, yet it is richly interwoven with relationships and connections. Those connections can turn our personal stories into a larger, shared story. We create our story by giving voice to our shared human experience - by praying in solidarity for our brothers and sisters, by connecting our empathy to action, and by sharing our resources, our gifts, and ourselves with each other.

Pray ...

This loving ministry provides a way for congregations, faith communities, and individuals to pray for children in need of adoptive families. We know that most congregations have within their fellowship persons to whom God has given a spirit for intercessory prayer. You may be one of those special people.

Connect ...

By reaching out to local congregations and church leaders, Saint Francis hopes to build relationships. By connecting, we can collaborate in creative ministries, address local needs, and share insights and experience. Together, let's begin "our" story.
