NOAH

Vibrant and energetic, Noah, 11, has a wide range of talents and interests, including a natural athletic ability and a passion for sports. Whether tossing a football, kicking a soccer ball, or shooting hoops, Noah thrives in active, competitive environments. His coordination stands out, and he's known for picking up new games quickly and playing them with confidence and enthusiasm.

But there's more to Noah than sports. He also has a thoughtful, creative side. He enjoys drawing in his free time, often filling pages with imaginative scenes, characters, and designs inspired by his favorite shows. Crossword puzzles are another favorite, giving him a fun way to challenge his mind and sharpen his problem-solving abilities.

With his mix of athleticism, creativity, and curiosity, Noah is a well-rounded child who's always ready to learn, play, and explore. He just needs a family to call his own.

Almighty God, you gave your only Son into the care of a human family:
Please open the hearts of your people to all children in foster care, especially Noah; send parents to love them, communities to guide them, and your Holy Spirit to nurture them into the people you want them to be. This we ask through your Son, Jesus Christ.
Amen.

Fostering in Faith

Each of us has a story. It's our own, yet it is richly interwoven with relationships and connections. Those connections can turn our personal stories into a larger, shared story. We create our story by giving voice to our shared human experience - by praying in solidarity for our brothers and sisters, by connecting our empathy to action, and by sharing our resources, our gifts, and ourselves with each other.

Pray ...

This loving ministry provides a way for congregations, faith communities, and individuals to pray for children in need of adoptive families. We know that most congregations have within their fellowship persons to whom God has given a spirit for intercessory prayer. You may be one of those special people.

Connect ...

By reaching out to local congregations and church leaders, Saint Francis hopes to build relationships. By connecting, we can collaborate in creative ministries, address local needs, and share insights and experience. Together, let's begin "our" story.
